Rosanna

Short Story Writer Extraordinaire!

#Care #Collaborate #Grow #Achieve

Last night, I was extremely fortunate to have been invited to attend the award show at The Lowry for their Creative Writing Challenge.

Rosanna, entered the competition some time ago and had almost forgotten about it, when she received the news that she was one of the 16 winners chosen to go and present their work on stage. There had been over 500 entrants.

The finalists had drawn on all aspects of writing for performance, including poetry, spoken word, creative writing and script writing. In addition, there was a special guest performer, the poet, Tony Walsh. Afterwards, the finalists walked the red carpet and had their photos taken. It was quite the star studded event!

The quality of the work was of an exceptionally high standard, with the entrants often drawing on their own personal experiences. I was so impressed by the children's ability to communicate these to the audience, creatively and confidently.

And I know we are biased (!) but Rosanna, you were simply the best! Delivering your short story with such expression and confidence and having to wait right up until the end. Proving the point that you 'save the best until last!'

I have attached Rosanna's story, with her permission, for you to enjoy at home.

Coronation Bookmarks

#Care #Collaborate #Grow #Achieve

My sincerest thanks to our wonderful PTA for purchasing the bookmarks in order to commemorate His Majesty's Coronation.

This will ensure that the children remember this very special occasion for many years to come.

Thank you also for their hard work and efforts in arranging the recent discos for our children. These are becoming a very popular highlight on the school calendar.
